Dearest Helen,

Busy bees we have been continuing our processing. I really haven't had much time to do anything except pack & finish our processing.

Today I got some extra copies of my special orders. I shall forward them to you and also copies of the orders that send me to Princeton. With 5 copies of either of these orders you should be able to move your furniture from Minneapolis to Cleveland. I shall also send you some money & probably a bond - as soon as I get paid.
I'll send your mother the key to my footlocker. I'm going to buy a pair of combat boots, but so far have had no luck buying a wrist watch or flashlight. I have an inhaler & some cue tips, but you could send me some more if you will.

Darling - now I really appreciate and thank you for doing my laundry last week. Some of the boys are leaving & do theirs now. Thanks a lot.

I wondering where you are, when you are moving, and how you made out on those tickets to Seattle. Give my love to everyone. I'd give anything to see Johnny sticking up his head in the morning. Tell him Daddy says "Hi".

My dearest love to you, darling,
I love you.

Jack
